Indemnity

10. Subject to such standards and restrictions, if any, as are specified in the articles or in its LLC agreement, an LLC may indemnify and hold harmless any member or manager or other person from and against any claims and demands whatsoever.

PART 2

FORMATION OF LLC

Formation of an LLC

11. (1) One or more persons may form an LLC by signing articles of formation in prescribed form and filing them with the Registrar.

(2) The articles of formation must contain—

- (a) the name of the LLC;
- (b) the address of its first registered office and the name and address of its first registered agent;
- (c) if the LLC proposes to have a specific date of dissolution, the latest date on which the LLC must dissolve;
- (d) if the LLC will be formed on a date subsequent to the date of filing of the articles of formation, that date; and
- (e) any other matters as the members may determine.

(3) An LLC is formed on the date specified in the certificate of formation issued by the Registrar under subsection (6).

(4) An LLC formed under this Act shall be a separate legal entity, the existence of which as a separate legal entity shall continue until it is dissolved.

(5) If he is satisfied that the requirements of this Act in respect of formation have been complied with, the Registrar must, upon receipt of articles of formation, register the articles in the Register and issue a certificate of formation.

(6) The certificate of formation must specify the date of the formation of the LLC, which must be—

- (a) the date of registration of the articles of formation; or
- (b) if a later date for the formation of the LLC is specified in the articles of formation, that date.

LLC agreement

12. A written agreement concerning the affairs of an LLC and the conduct of its business may be entered into by the members of the LLC either before, after or at the time of the signing of articles of formation and the agreement shall take effect, whenever entered into, on the formation of the LLC or upon such other date as may be provided in the agreement.

Amendment of articles of formation

13. The articles of formation may be amended at any time and for any lawful purpose by filing articles of amendment in prescribed form with the Registrar specifying—

- (a) the name of the LLC; and
- (b) the amendment to the articles.

Signing of documents

14. (1) A document required or permitted by this Act to be filed with the Registrar shall be signed by one or more persons authorised by the LLC.

(2) Unless otherwise provided in the articles or the LLC agreement, a person may—

- (a) sign any document required or permitted to be filed under this Act or any amendment thereof; and
- (b) enter into an LLC agreement or agree to any amendment thereof;

by an agent authorised by that person, including an attorney-in-fact.

(3) It is not necessary for an authorisation given under subsection (2), including a power of attorney, to be in writing, sworn to, verified or acknowledged or filed with the Registrar but any authorisation in writing must be retained by the LLC.

(4) The signing of a document by an authorised person constitutes a declaration that the individual believes the facts stated therein are true.

Powers of Court

15. (1) If a person required to sign a document under this Act fails or refuses to do so, any other person who is adversely affected by the failure or refusal may apply to the Court to direct the signing of the document.

(2) If, on an application made under subsection (1), the Court finds that any person required to sign a document has failed or refused to do so, it—

- (a) may order the person to sign the document; and

(b) may order the Registrar to register the document, whether or not the document has been signed.

(3) If a person required to execute an LLC agreement or amendment thereof fails or refuses to do so, any other person who is adversely affected by the failure or refusal may apply to the Court to direct the execution of the LLC agreement or amendment thereof.

(4) If the Court finds in respect of subsection (1) that the LLC agreement or amendment thereof should be executed and that any person required to execute the LLC agreement or amendment thereof has failed or refused to do so, it shall make an order granting appropriate relief.

Filing requirements

16. (1) The original signed copy of the articles of formation or any articles of amendment or cancellation (or of any judicial order of amendment or cancellation), and of any articles of merger or consolidation and of any restated articles shall be filed with the Registrar.

(2) A person who signs a document as an agent or fiduciary need not show evidence of his authority as a prerequisite to filing.

(3) The amendment or restatement of articles of formation shall be effective upon—

(a) the acceptance by the Registrar for filing of a certificate of amendment or restatement;

(b) the filing of a judicial order of amendment; or

(c) such future date or time as may be specified in the certificate of amendment or restatement or the judicial order of amendment, as the case may be.

Certificate of formation is notice

17. The fact that a certificate of formation has been issued by the Registrar is notice that the entity formed in connection with the issue of the certificate of formation is an LLC formed under the laws of Anguilla and of all other facts specified therein as required pursuant to section 11.

Restated articles

18. (1) An LLC may integrate into a single instrument all the provisions of its articles of formation that are then in effect and operative as a result of the filing of one or more articles of amendment pursuant to this Part and may at the same time amend its articles of formation by adopting restated articles of formation.

(2) If the restated articles of formation merely restate and integrate but do not further amend the original articles of formation, as amended or supplemented by any articles of amendment filed under this Act, the articles must be specifically designated “Restated Articles of Formation” together with such other words as the LLC considers appropriate and must be signed by an authorised person and filed in prescribed form in accordance with section 16.

(3) If the restated articles of formation restate and integrate and also further amend in any respect the articles of formation, as amended or supplemented, the articles must be specifically designated “Amended and Restated Articles of Formation” together with such other words as the LLC considers appropriate and must be signed by an authorised person and filed in prescribed form in accordance with section 16.

(4) The restated articles of formation shall state—

- (a) the LLC's present name;
- (b) the name under which it was originally formed (if different);
- (c) the date of filing of its original articles of formation and the future effective date or time (which must be a date or time certain) of the restated articles if they are not to be effective on filing; and
- (d) that they are duly signed and are being filed in accordance with this section.

(5) If the restated articles only restate and integrate and do not further amend an LLC's articles of formation as theretofore amended or supplemented and there is no discrepancy between those provisions and the restated articles, it shall state that fact as well.

(6) If he is satisfied that the relevant requirements of this Act have been complied with, the Registrar must, upon receipt of restated articles of formation, register the articles in the Register and issue a certificate of registration of the restated articles of formation.

(7) The certificate of registration of the restated articles of formation must specify the date upon which the restated articles are effective, which must be—

- (a) the date of registration of the restated articles of formation; or
- (b) if a later date is stated in the articles under paragraph (4)(c), that date.

(8) Any amendment or change effected by the restatement and integration of the articles of formation is subject to any other provision of this Act that would apply if separate articles of amendment had been filed to effect such amendment or change.

Merger and consolidation

19. (1) In this section, "other business entity" means a company, or business trust or association, a real estate investment trust, a common law trust, or any other unincorporated business, including a partnership (whether general or limited), and a foreign LLC, but excluding a domestic LLC.

(2) Pursuant to an agreement of merger or consolidation, a domestic LLC may merge or consolidate with or into one or more LLCs or other business entities formed or organised under the laws of Anguilla or of any foreign jurisdiction, with such domestic LLC or other business entity as the agreement provides, being the surviving or resulting domestic LLC or other business entity.

(3) Unless otherwise provided in the LLC agreement, a merger or consolidation shall be approved by each domestic LLC that is to merge or consolidate by the members or, if there is more than one class or group of members, then by each class or group of members and in either case, by members who own more than 50% of the then current percentage or other interest in the profits of the domestic LLC owned by all of the members or by the members in each class or group, as appropriate.

(4) In connection with a merger or consolidation hereunder, rights or securities of, or interests in, a domestic LLC or other business entity that is a constituent party to the merger or consolidation may be exchanged for or converted into cash, property, rights or securities of, or interests in, the surviving or resulting domestic LLC or other business entity or, in addition to or in lieu thereof, may be exchanged or converted into cash, property, rights or securities of, or interests in, an LLC or other business entity that is not the surviving or resulting LLC or other business entity in the merger or consolidation.

(5) Notwithstanding prior approval, an agreement or merger or consolidation may be terminated or amended pursuant to a provision for such termination or amendment contained in the agreement of merger or consolidation.

(6) If a domestic LLC is merging or consolidating under this section, the domestic LLC or other business entity surviving or resulting in or from the merger or consolidation shall file a certificate of merger or consolidation with the Registrar that shall state—

- (a) the name and jurisdiction of formation or organisation of each of the LLCs or other business entities that propose to merge or consolidate;
- (b) that an agreement of merger or consolidation has been approved and executed by each of the domestic LLCs or other business entities that propose to merge or consolidate;
- (c) the name of the surviving or resulting domestic LLC or other business entity;
- (d) the future effective date or time (which shall be a date or time certain) of the merger or consolidation if it is not to be effective upon the filing of the articles of merger or consolidation;
- (e) that the agreement of merger or consolidation is filed at a place of business of the surviving or resulting domestic LLC or other business entity, and the address thereof; and
- (f) that a copy of the agreement of merger or consolidation will be furnished by the surviving or resulting domestic LLC or any person holding an interest in any other business entity that proposes to merge or consolidate.

(7) Unless a future effective date or time is provided in articles of merger or consolidation, in which event a merger or consolidation shall be effective at any such future effective date or time, a merger or consolidation shall be effective upon the filing with the Registrar of articles of merger or consolidation in prescribed form.

(8) A certificate of merger or consolidation shall act as a certificate of cancellation for a domestic LLC that is not the surviving or resulting entity in the merger or consolidation.

(9) An agreement of merger or consolidation approved in accordance with subsection (2) may—

- (a) effect any amendment to the LLC agreement; or
- (b) effect the adoption of a new LLC agreement for an LLC that is the surviving or resulting LLC in the merger or consolidation.

(10) Any amendment to an LLC agreement or adoption of a new LLC agreement made pursuant to subsection (9) shall be effective at the effective time or date of the merger or consolidation and this subsection shall not be construed to limit the accomplishment of a merger or of any of the matters referred to herein by any other means provided for in an LLC agreement or other agreement or as otherwise permitted by law including that the LLC agreement of any constituent LLC to the merger or consolidation (including an LLC formed for the purpose of consummating a merger or consolidation) shall be the LLC agreement of the surviving or resulting LLC.

Effect of merger

20. (1) When any merger or consolidation is effected under this section, all the rights, privileges and powers of each of the domestic LLCs and other business entities that have merged or consolidated, and all property whether real or personal, and all debts due to any of the domestic LLCs and other business entities, and all other things and causes of action belonging to each of such domestic LLCs and other business entities, shall vest in the surviving or resulting domestic LLC or other business entity.

(2) The title to any real property vested by deed or otherwise, under the laws of Anguilla or elsewhere, in any such domestic LLC or other business entity, shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of this Act, but all rights of creditors and all liens upon any property of any domestic LLC or other business entity shall be preserved unimpaired, and all debts, liabilities and duties of each of the domestic LLCs or other business entity that have merged or consolidated shall thenceforth attach to the surviving or resulting domestic LLC or other business entity, and may be enforced against it to the same extent as if the debts, liabilities and duties had been incurred or contracted by it.

(3) Subject to any agreement to the contrary, a merger or consolidation of a domestic LLC, including a domestic LLC that is not the surviving or resulting entity in the merger or consolidation, does not require the domestic LLC to wind up its affairs under section 52 or pay its liabilities and distribute its assets under section 56.

Classes and voting rights of members

- 22. (1) An LLC agreement may provide for classes or groups of members having such relative rights, powers and duties as the agreement may provide, and may make provision for the creation in the manner provided of additional classes or groups of members having such relative rights, powers and duties as may from time to time be established, including rights, powers and duties ranking prior to existing classes and groups of members.
- (2) An LLC agreement may provide for the taking of any action, including the amendment of the LLC agreement, without the vote or approval of any member or class or group of members, including an action to create under the provisions of the LLC agreement a class or group of interests that was not previously outstanding.
- (3) An LLC agreement may grant to all or certain identified members or a specified class or group of members the right to vote separately or with all or any class or group of the members or managers, on any matter. Voting by members may be on a per capita, number, financial interest, class, group or any other basis.
- (4) An LLC agreement that grants a right to vote may specify provisions relating to notice of the time, place or purpose of any meeting at which any matter is to be voted on by any members, waiver of any such notice, action by consent without a meeting, the establishment of a record date, quorum requirements, voting in person or by proxy, or any other matter with respect to the exercise of any such right to vote.
- (5) An LLC agreement may provide that a member's share of the profits, losses and other distributions from the LLC may vary from time to time and may vary from a member's proportionate voting rights.

Liability to third parties

- 23. Except as otherwise provided in section 44, the debts, obligations and liabilities of an LLC, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, shall be solely the debts, obligations and liabilities of the LLC, and no member or manager of an LLC is liable personally for any such debt, obligation or liability of the LLC solely by reason of being a member or manager of the LLC.

Ceasing to be member of LLC

24. (1) Unless otherwise provided in an LLC agreement, or with the written consent of the members, a person ceases to be a member of an LLC when he—

- (g) dies;
- (h) becomes incompetent; or
- (i) resigns or is expelled.

(2) Unless otherwise provided in an LLC agreement, or with the written consent of all members, a person ceases to be a member of an LLC 120 days after the commencement of any proceedings against the member seeking reorganisation, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under any law, if the proceedings have not been dismissed, or if within 90 days after the appointment without his consent or acquiescence of a trustee, receiver or liquidator of the member or of all or any substantial part of his properties, the appointment is not vacated or stayed, or within 90 days after the expiration of any such stay, the appointment is not vacated.

Access to and confidentiality of information

25. (1) Each member of an LLC has the right, subject to reasonable standards (including standards governing what information and documents are to be furnished at what time and location and at whose expense) as may be specified in the LLC agreement or otherwise established by the manager or, if there is no manager, then by the members, to obtain from the LLC from time to time upon reasonable request for any purpose reasonably related to the member's interest as a member of the LLC—

- (2) Each manager has the right to examine the information described in subsection (1) for a purpose reasonably related to his position as manager.
- (3) Unless otherwise provided in the LLC agreement, the manager of an LLC may not keep confidential from the members any information, trade secrets or other information of the LLC.
- (4) Any request by a member under this section must be in writing and state the purpose of the request.
- (5) If—
- (a) a request made by a member or manager under this section is refused or not complied with; or
 - (b) a manager of an LLC acts in breach of subsection (3);
- any interested person may, on notice to the LLC, apply to the Court for an order to require the LLC, manager or members to comply with its obligations under this section, and the Court may so order and make any further order it thinks fit.

Form of records

26. An LLC may maintain its records in other than written form if such form is capable of conversion into written form within a reasonable time.

Remedies for breach

27. An LLC agreement may provide that—

- (a) a member who fails to comply with the terms and conditions of the LLC agreement shall be subject to such penalties as are specified in the agreement; and
- (b) at the time or upon the happening of events specified in the LLC agreement, a member shall be subject to such penalties as are specified in the agreement.

PART 4

MANAGERS

Managers

28. (1) A person may be named or designated as a manager of an LLC as specified in section 29(2).

(2) An LLC agreement may provide for the annual or other election of the manager or managers.

Management of LLC

29. (1) Unless otherwise provided in an LLC agreement, the management of an LLC shall vest in its members in proportion to their then current percentage share in the profits of the LLC regardless whether or not the economic interest of a member may have been previously conveyed to another, members owning more than 50% of that percentage share or other interest in the profits having a controlling interest.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), if an LLC agreement provides for the management, in whole or in part, of an LLC by a manager, the management of the LLC to the extent so provided shall vest in the manager who shall be chosen by the members in the manner provided in the agreement.

(3) The manager shall hold the offices and have the responsibilities accorded to him by the members as specified in an LLC agreement.

(4) Subject to section 39, a manager ceases to be manager as provided in the agreement.

Contributions by manager

30. (1) Unless otherwise provided in an LLC agreement, a manager of an LLC may make contributions to the company and share in the profits and losses of, and distributions from, the LLC as a member.

(2) A person who is both a manager and a member has the rights and powers, and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities, of a manager and except as provided in the LLC agreement has the rights and powers, and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities, of a member to the extent of his participation in the LLC as a member.

Classes and voting rights

31. (1) An LLC agreement may provide for classes or groups of managers having such relative rights, powers and duties as the agreement provides, and may make provision for the creation in the manner provided in the agreement of additional classes or groups of managers having such relative rights, powers and duties as may from time to time be established, including rights, powers and duties ranking prior to existing classes and groups of managers.

(2) An LLC agreement may provide for the taking of any action, including the amendment of the agreement, without the vote or approval of any manager or class or group of managers, including an action to create under the provisions of the LLC agreement a class or group of interests that was not previously outstanding.

(3) An LLC agreement may grant to all or certain identified managers or a specified class or group of the managers the right to vote separately, or with all, or any, class or group of managers or members, on any matter. Voting by managers may be on a per capita, number, financial interest, class, group or any other basis.

(4) An LLC agreement that grants a right to vote may specify provisions relating to notice of the time, place or purpose of any meeting at which any matter is to be voted on by any manager or class or group of managers, waiver of any such notice, action by consent without a meeting, the establishment of a record date, quorum requirements, voting in person or by proxy, or any other matter with respect to the exercise of any such right to vote.

Remedies for breach

32. An LLC agreement may provide that—

- (a) a manager who fails to comply with the terms and conditions of the LLC agreement shall be subject to such penalties as are specified in the agreement; and
- (b) at the time or upon the happening of events specified in the LLC agreement, a manager shall be subject to such penalties as are specified in the agreement.

Reliance on reports and information by member or manager

33. A member or manager of an LLC is entitled to rely in good faith upon the records of the LLC and upon such information, opinions, reports or statements presented to the LLC by any of its other managers, members, officers, employees, or committees of the LLC, or by any other person as to matters the members or manager reasonably believes are within such other person's professional or expert competence and who has been selected with reasonable care by or on behalf of the company, including information, opinions, reports or statements as to the value and amount of the assets, liabilities, profits or losses of the LLC or any other facts pertinent to the existence and amount of assets from which distributions to members might properly be paid.

FINANCIAL MATTERS

Form of contribution

34. The contribution of a member to an LLC may be in cash, property or services rendered, or a promissory note or other obligation to contribute cash or property or to perform services.

Liability for contribution

35. (1) Except as provided in the LLC agreement or subsection (3), a member, his estate, successors, assignees, trustees or guardians is liable to the LLC to perform any promise to contribute cash or property, or to perform services.

(2) If a member does not make the required contributions of property or services, he is liable at the option of the LLC to contribute cash equal to that portion of the agreed value (as stated in the records of the LLC) of the contribution that has not been made, and this option is in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other rights, including the right to specific performance, that the LLC may have against the member under the agreement or other law.

(3) Unless otherwise provided in an LLC agreement, the obligation of a member to make a contribution or return of money or other property paid or distributed in contravention of this Act may be compromised only with consent of all the members.

(4) Notwithstanding the compromise, a creditor of an LLC who extends credit after the entering into of an LLC agreement or an amendment thereto that, in either case, reflects the obligation, and before the amendment thereof to reflect the compromise, may enforce the original obligation to the extent that, in extending credit, the creditor reasonably relied on the obligation of a member to make a contribution or return.

(5) A conditional obligation of a member to make a contribution or return money or other property to an LLC may not be enforced unless the conditions of the obligation have been satisfied or waived as to or by such member. Conditional obligations include contributions payable upon a discretionary call of an LLC prior to the time the call occurs.

(6) An LLC agreement may provide that the interest of any member who fails to make any contribution that he is liable to make is subject to such penalties as are specified in the agreement.

(7) The penalty may take the form of reducing or eliminating the defaulting member's proportionate interest in an LLC, subordinating his interest to that of non-defaulting members, a forced sale of his LLC interest or forfeiture of the loan by other members of the amount necessary to meet his commitment, a fixing of the value of his LLC interest by appraisal or by formula and redemption or sale of his LLC interest at such value, or other penalty.

Profits and losses

36. The profits and losses of an LLC shall be allocated among the members, and among classes or groups of members, in the manner provided in the agreement and if the agreement does not so provide, any profits and losses shall be allocated on the basis of the agreed value (as stated in the records of the LLC) of the contributions made by each member to the extent they have been received by the LLC and have not been returned.

Allocation of distributions

37. Distributions of cash and other assets of the LLC shall be allocated among the members, and among classes or groups of members, in the manner provided in an LLC agreement and, if the LLC agreement does not so provide, distributions shall be made on the basis of the agreed value (stated in the records of the LLC) of the contributions made by each member to the extent they have been received by the LLC and have not been returned.

PART 6

DISTRIBUTION AND RESIGNATION

Interim distribution

38. Except as provided in this Part, to the extent and at the times or upon the happening of the events specified in an LLC agreement, a member is entitled to receive from an LLC distributions before his resignation from the LLC and before the dissolution and winding up thereof.

Resignation of manager

39. (1) A manager may resign as a manager of an LLC at the time or upon the happening of events specified in the LLC agreement and in accordance with the agreement.

(2) If an LLC agreement provides that a manager does not have the right to resign as manager of an LLC, a manager may nevertheless resign as manager at any time by giving written notice thereof to the members and other managers.

(3) If the resignation of a manager is in contravention of an LLC agreement, in addition to any remedies otherwise available under the law, an LLC may recover from the resigning manager damages for breach in the amount otherwise distributable to the resigning manager.

Resignation of members

40. (1) A member may resign from an LLC at the time or upon the happening of events specified in the agreement and in accordance with the agreement.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in the LLC agreement, a member may resign by giving written notice to the LLC at its registered office and to each member and manager at the addresses specified in the records of the LLC.

(3) A resignation does not relieve the resigning member of the obligation to make a capital contribution.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Act, an LLC agreement may provide that a member may not resign from an LLC or assign his interests therein prior to the dissolution and winding up of the LLC.

Distribution upon resignation

41. Except as otherwise provided in the LLC agreement, a member is entitled on his resignation to receive any distribution to which he is entitled under the agreement, and if not otherwise provided in the agreement, within a reasonable time after resignation, the fair value of his LLC interest as of the date of resignation based upon his right to share in distributions from the company.

Distribution in kind

42. (1) Except as provided in the LLC agreement, a member, regardless of the nature of his contribution, has no right to demand and receive any distribution from an LLC in any form other than cash.

(2) Except as provided in an LLC agreement, a member may not be compelled to accept a distribution of any asset in kind from an LLC to the extent that the percentage of the asset distributed to him exceeds a percentage of that asset that is equal to the percentage in which he shares in distributions from the company.

Right to distribution

43. (1) Subject to sections 44 and 56, and unless otherwise provided in an LLC agreement, at the time a member becomes entitled to receive a distribution, he has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available to, a creditor of the LLC with respect to the distribution.

(2) An LLC may provide for the establishment of a record date with respect to allocations and distributions by the LLC.

Limitation on distribution

44. (1) An LLC shall not make a distribution to a member or holder of an economic interest to the extent that after giving effect to the distribution, all liabilities of the LLC, other than liabilities to members on account of their LLC interests and liabilities for which the recourse of creditors is limited to specific property of the LLC, exceed the fair value of the assets of the company. The fair value of property that is subject to a liability for which the recourse of creditors is limited shall be included in the assets of the LLC only to the extent that the fair value of that property exceeds that liability.

(2) A member or holder of an economic interest who receives a distribution in contravention of subsection (1) and who knew at the time of the distribution that the distribution was in breach of the subsection is liable to the LLC for the amount of the distribution.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed, a member who receives a distribution from an LLC is not liable under this Act or other law for the amount of the distribution after the expiration of 3 years from the date of the distribution unless any action to recover the distribution from that member is commenced prior to the expiration of the 3 year period and an adjudication of liability against the member is made in the action.

(4) An LLC that contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence.

PART 7

ASSIGNMENT OF LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY INTERESTS

Nature of interest

45. (1) An LLC interest is personal property.

(2) A member has no interest in specific LLC property.

Assignment of interest

46. (1) Unless otherwise provided in the LLC agreement, an LLC interest is assignable in whole or in part with the consent of the other members.

(2) Without such consent as provided in subsection (1)—

- (a) the assignee of a member's interest has no right to participate in the management of the business and affairs of an LLC;
 - (b) an assignment entitles the assignee to share in such profits and losses, to receive such distributions, and allocation of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit or similar item to which the assignor was entitled, to the extent assigned.
- (3) Unless otherwise provided in an LLC agreement, a member ceases to be a member and to have the power to exercise any rights or powers of a member upon assignment of his member's interest.
- (4) Unless otherwise provided in the LLC agreement, the pledge of or granting of a security interest, lien or other encumbrance in or against any or all of the economic interests of a member does not cause the member to cease to be a member or to have the power to exercise any rights or powers of a member.
- (5) An LLC agreement may provide that a member's interest in the company may be evidenced by a certificate of the interest issued by the company.
- (6) Unless otherwise provided in an LLC agreement and except to the extent assumed by agreement, until an assignee of a member's interest becomes a member, the assignee has no liability solely by reason of the assignment other than the return of capital contributions received by such assignee.
- (7) A holder of an economic interest may bring an action to enforce his rights to receive a distribution of profits, losses or other distribution due to him from the LLC or to enforce an accounting for distributions that were improperly made.

Right of judgment creditor

- 47. (1) On application to the Court by any judgment creditor of a member, the Court may charge the economic interest of the member with payment of the unsatisfied amount of the judgment.
- (2) To the extent so charged, the judgment creditor has only the rights of an assignee of the economic interest.
- (3) This Act does not deprive any member of the benefit of any exemption laws applicable to his member's interest.

Right of assignee to become member

- 48. (1) An assignee of a member's interest may become a member as provided in the LLC agreement—
- (a) with the approval of the members of the LLC other than the member assigning his interest; or
 - (b) upon compliance with any procedure provided for in the LLC agreement.
- (2) An assignee who becomes a member has, to the extent assigned, the rights and powers, and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities, of a member under the agreement and this Act.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), and subject to subsection (4), unless otherwise provided in an LLC agreement, an assignee who becomes a member assumes the obligations of his assignor to make contributions as provided in section 35, but is not liable for the obligations of his assignor under Part 6.

(4) The assignee is not liable for liabilities, including the obligations of his assignor to make contributions as provided in section 35, unknown to the assignee at the time he became a member and that could not be ascertained from the agreement.

(5) Whether or not an assignee of a member's interest becomes a member, the assignor is not released from his liability to an LLC under Parts 5 or 6.

Estate of deceased or incompetent member

49. (1) Unless otherwise provided in an LLC agreement, if a member dies, becomes bankrupt or a Court of competent jurisdiction adjudges him to be incompetent to manage his affairs, the member's executor, administrator, guardian, or other legal representative may exercise all of the member's rights for the purpose of settling his estate or administering his property, including any power under an LLC agreement of an assignee to become a member.

(2) If a member is a company, trust or other entity and is dissolved or terminated, the powers of that member may be exercised by its legal representative or successor.

PART 8

DISSOLUTION

Dissolution

50. The term of an LLC may be perpetual or as otherwise provided in the LLC agreement.

Dissolution and winding up by the Court

51. (1) An order for the liquidation and dissolution of an LLC may be made by the Court if—

- (a) the LLC carries on business in breach of section 8;
- (b) the LLC carries on business without a member;
- (c) the LLC has seriously or persistently failed to comply with this Act;
- (d) the LLC is unable to pay its debts;
- (e) the Court considers that it would be just and equitable for the LLC to be dissolved and wound up; or
- (f) the Court considers that it is not reasonably practicable for the business to be carried on in conformity with the agreement.

(2) An application to the Court for an order under subsection (1) may be made—

- (a) by the Registrar upon any one or more grounds set out in subsection (1);
- (b) by an interested person upon the grounds set out in paragraph (1)(c), (d) or (e); or
- (c) by a member or manager upon the grounds set out in paragraph (1)(f).

(3) Unless the Court otherwise orders, where the Court makes an order under this section, the provisions of the Companies Act shall apply as if the LLC was a company being liquidated and dissolved by the Court under section 214(3) of that Act.

Winding up

52. (1) Unless otherwise provided in the LLC agreement, a manager or, if none, the members or a person approved by the members or, if there is more than one class or group of members, then by each class or group of members, in either case, by members who own more than 50% of the then current percentage share or other interest in the profits of the LLC owned by all of the members or by the members in each class or group, as appropriate, may wind up the company's affairs, but the Court, upon cause shown, may wind up the company's affairs upon application of any member or manager, his legal representative or assignee, and in connection therewith may appoint a liquidator.

(2) Upon the dissolution of an LLC, the persons winding up the company's affairs may, in the name of, and for and on behalf of, the company, prosecute and defend suits, whether civil, criminal or administrative, settle and close the company's business, dispose of and convey the company's property, discharge or make reasonable provision for the company's liabilities, and distribute to the members any remaining assets of the company, without affecting the liability of members and managers and without imposing liability on a liquidator.

Notice to the Registrar

53. (1) Notice in writing must be given to the Registrar of the matters set out in paragraphs (a) to (d) by the persons specified in the paragraph—

- (a) an order for judicial dissolution under section 51, by the applicant for the order;
- (b) the winding up of an LLC under section 52, by the person carrying out the winding up;
- (c) an order for the winding up by the Court of an LLC under section 52, by the applicant for the order; and
- (d) the appointment of a liquidator under section 52, by the liquidator; within 21 days of the order, commencement of the winding up or appointment of the liquidator, as the case may be.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence.

Dissolution of LLC with no property or liabilities

54. (1) Unless otherwise provided in the LLC agreement, an LLC that has no property and no liabilities may file articles of dissolution in prescribed form.

(2) Articles of dissolution must be signed by the manager or by the registered agent of the LLC.

(3) If he is satisfied that the requirements of this Act in respect of dissolution have been complied with, the Registrar may, upon receipt of articles of dissolution, issue a certificate of dissolution and strike the company off the Register.

(4) The company is dissolved on the date shown in its certificate of dissolution.

Dissolved LLC to be struck from the Register

55. The Registrar shall upon the conclusion of the dissolution and winding up of an LLC under this Part strike the LLC off the Register.

Distribution of assets

56. (1) Upon the winding up of an LLC, the assets shall be distributed as follows—

- (a) to creditors, including members or managers who are creditors, to the extent otherwise permitted by law, in satisfaction of liabilities of the company (whether by payment or the making of reasonable provision for payment thereof) other than liabilities for which reasonable provision for payment has been made and liabilities for distributions to members under section 38;
- (b) unless otherwise provided in the agreement, to members and former members in satisfaction of liabilities for distributions under section 38 or 41; and
- (c) unless otherwise provided in the agreement, to members first for the return of their contributions and second respecting their economic interests, in the proportions in which the members share in distributions.

(2) An LLC that has been dissolved shall pay or make reasonable provision to pay all claims and liabilities, including all contingent, conditional or unmatured claims and liabilities that are known to the company and all claims and obligations that are known to the company but for which the identity of the claimant is unknown.

(3) If there are sufficient assets, the claims and liabilities shall be paid in full and provision for payment made shall be made in full.

(4) If there are insufficient assets, the claims and obligations shall be paid or provided for according to their priority and, among claims and liabilities of equal priority, rateably to the extent of assets available therefor.

(5) Unless otherwise provided in the agreement, any remaining assets shall be distributed as provided in this Act.

(6) A liquidator of the company who has complied with this section is not personally liable to the claimants of the dissolved LLC by reason of his actions in winding up the company.

Striking LLC from Register and dissolution

57. (1) The Registrar may strike an LLC from the Register if—

- (a) the LLC contravenes any provision of this Act; or
 - (b) he is satisfied that the company has ceased to carry on business or is not in operation.
- (2) Before striking an LLC from the Register under subsection (1), the Registrar shall send it a notice stating—
- (a) the grounds on which it is intended to strike the LLC from the Register; and
 - (b) that, unless the LLC shows cause to the contrary and remedies the defaults set out in the notice, if any, within 90 days after the date of the notice, it will be struck from the Register.
- (3) After the expiration of the time mentioned in the notice, the Registrar may, unless the LLC has shown cause to the contrary and, if appropriate, remedied the defaults set out in the notice, issue a certificate of strike off and dissolution.
- (4) The LLC is struck off the Register and dissolved on the date shown in its certificate of dissolution.
- (5) The Registrar shall publish a notice of the striking off and dissolution of the LLC in the Gazette.
- (6) Where an LLC is struck off the Register and dissolved, the Registrar may, upon the application of an interested person made in the prescribed form and upon payment of the prescribed fee and any outstanding fees, revive it and issue a certificate in a form adapted to the circumstances.
- (7) Any person who is aggrieved by the decision of the Registrar under this section, may appeal to the Court and if the Court is satisfied that it would be just for the LLC to be revived, the Court may direct the Registrar to do so upon such terms and conditions as it may consider appropriate.

Property of LLC struck off Register

- 58. (1) Any property of an LLC that has not been disposed of at the date that it is struck off the Register vests in the Crown.
- (2) When an LLC is revived under section 57, any property (other than money) that was vested in the Crown under subsection (1) on the dissolution of the LLC and that has not been disposed of must be returned to the LLC upon its restoration to the Register.
- (3) The LLC is entitled to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund—
- (a) any money received by the Crown under subsection (1) in respect of the LLC; and
 - (b) if property other than money vested in the Crown under subsection (1) in respect of the LLC and that property has been disposed of, an amount equal to the lesser of—
 - (i) the value of any such property at the date it vested in the Crown, and
 - (ii) the amount realized by the Crown by the disposition of that property.

Disclaimer of property by the Crown

59. (1) In this section, “onerous property” means—

- (a) an unprofitable contract; or
- (b) property of the LLC that is unsaleable, or not readily saleable, or that may give rise to a liability to pay money or perform an onerous act.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Minister may, by notice in writing published in the Gazette, disclaim the Crown’s title to onerous property that vests in the Crown under section 58.

(3) A statement in a notice disclaiming property under this section that the vesting of the property in the Crown first came to the notice of the Minister on a specified date shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be evidence of the fact stated.

(4) Unless the Court, on the application of the Minister, orders otherwise, the Minister is not entitled to disclaim property unless the property is disclaimed—

- (a) within 12 months of the date upon which the vesting of the property under section 58 came to the notice of the Minister; or
- (b) if any person interested in the property gives notice in writing to the Minister requiring him to decide whether he will or will not disclaim the property, within 3 months of the date upon which he received the notice;

whichever occurs first.

(5) Property disclaimed by the Minister under this section shall be deemed not to have vested in the Crown under section 58.

(6) A disclaimer under this section—

- (a) operates so as to determine, with effect from immediately prior to the dissolution of the LLC, the rights, interests and liabilities of the LLC in or in respect of the property disclaimed; and
- (b) does not, except so far as is necessary to release the LLC from liability, affect the rights or liabilities of any other person.

(7) A person suffering loss or damage as a result of a disclaimer under this section—

- (a) shall be treated as a creditor of the LLC for the amount of the loss or damage, taking into account the effect of any order made by the Court under subsection (8); and
- (b) may apply to the Court for an order that the disclaimed property be delivered to or vested in that person.

(8) The Court may, on an application made under paragraph (7)(b), make an order under that paragraph if it is satisfied that it is just for the disclaimed property to be delivered to or vested in the applicant.

Applicable law

68. The filing of an application to continue does not affect the choice of law applicable to prior liabilities and rights of the company, except that from the date the application is filed, the laws of Anguilla apply to the LLC to the same extent as if the company had been originally formed as an LLC of Anguilla on that date, and title to the company's assets shall also be governed by the laws of Anguilla.

Departure to foreign jurisdiction

69. Subject to the LLC agreement and this Act, an LLC may depart from Anguilla and become domiciled in a foreign jurisdiction in the manner provided under the laws of the foreign jurisdiction.

Effective date of departure

71. (1) Upon payment of all fees outstanding in Anguilla and upon compliance with this Act and applicable laws for transfer of domicile to the foreign jurisdiction, the departing company shall notify the Registrar as to the effective date of the transfer of domicile from Anguilla.

(2) If the Registrar is satisfied that the requirements of this Act with regard to departure have been complied with, he may issue a certificate of departure and from the date specified in the certificate, the company is deemed to have ceased to be an LLC domiciled in Anguilla.

Continuation under Companies Act or International Business Companies Act

72. (1) An LLC may continue—

- (a) as a company incorporated under the Companies Act in accordance with the provisions of that Act; or
- (b) as an international business company in accordance with the provisions of the International Business Companies Act.

(2) Upon the continuation of an LLC under the Companies Act or the International Business Companies Act, the Registrar shall strike the LLC from the Register and, with effect from the date of the LLC's continuation, it shall cease to be a company registered under this Act.
